Ag/Wam Season Is Off To a Running Start

The 2005 Ag/Wam season got under way on Monday, July 4, as the Wams narrowly defeated the Ags in a hard-run Base Relay. However, the season truly began the night before, when captains were elected and new campers were assigned to a team. Mike Hauge was elected by his peers to head the 2005 Wams, and Jake Sandler was elected to head the Ags. Mike and Jake, in turn, announced the officers for each of their teams. The Wams will be represented by Lieutenants Peter Murphy, Ted Moran, and Barrett McMullan; Upper Middle Campus co-Captains Ben Sataloff and James Goodenough; Lower Middle Campus co-Captains Alex Przedpelski and Will Stark; and Lower Campus co-Captains Dylan Souter and Peter Moran. The Ags will be lead by Lieutenants Andrew Gwozdz, Kyle Fitzsimmons, and Stefan Allard; Upper Middle Campus co-Captains Derek Richter and Will Degerberg; Lower Middle Campus co-Captains Jack Near and Joseph Noreña; and Lower Campus co-Captains Luke Noreña and Daniel Paseltiner. Later in the week, the Wams defeated the Ags in the Upper Campus Scavenger Hunt. Competitions in Lower Middle Basketball and Upper Middle Track were postponed because of inclement weather. Good luck to both teams for a terrific season!

Current score: AGS - 0, WAMS - 8

Fourth of July Goes Off With a BANG!

Campers and counselors alike enjoyed warm weather, sunny skies, great food, and a super fun day on the Fourth of July. After a morning of intense preparation, the counselors presented their annual Counselor Spectacular on the waterfront. The spectacle was followed by the campers' Carnival Midway, for which each cabin designed and presented a game or attraction for the other campers to play and, perhaps, win a piece of candy. This year's award winners were the cabins of Yale, for their haunted house; Bowdoin for "Mission:Impossible"; Harvard for "Aga-Jeopardy"; and Cornell for "Smooth Shooter". The day ended with the Base Relay (as recounted above) and a delicious ice cream sundae bonanza. Drew Shaeffer reported, "Things went the way they were supposed to, and it was a lot of fun." New camper Ben Tice described the day as, "Messy! But in a good way."
